PROFILE

Max recently started his journey into commercial real estate after finishing his education. After much thought and deliberation, he realized his schooling did not match his goals and wants. In 2022 he took a new path and was given the opportunity to join Lee and Associates under the tutelage of Team Cline. Max is currently developing a new set of skills allowing him to grow his business and take the commercial real estate world by storm. His past experience and education have given him a unique advantage in understanding the legal aspect of real estate as well as a comprehensive knowledge of the complexities that are associated with industrial and commercial transactions. Max has lived in Los Angeles the entirety of his life and strives to provide value and improve his native city.
