

OFFICE MARKET OVERVIEW

MARK RINKLE, Principal

Q2 faced escalating challenges, with the vacancy rate climbing to 16.4% and the 12-month net absorption posting another negative half a million square feet. Market rents dipped slightly from $34.11 to $34.09, showing continued weakness in the leasing sector. This persistent negative absorption trend, coupled with increasing vacancies, underscores a tough period ahead as hybrid work patterns and economic uncertainties continue to impact leasing activity and tenant retention. On the bright side, there were several large campus sale transactions that took place, most notably being the Pleasanton Corporate Commons which was purchased by Nome Capital Partners and Dutra Plaza being purchased by Engrace Montessori School. PCC was purchased at 43% less than the assessed value.
